You and three guests will be treated to an amazing ski and culinary week. The week will begin with a champagne reception at the fabulous Big White Ski Resort where you will get to meet the rest of the guests from across Canada and GMP celebrities: Olympic Gold Medallist Jamie Sale, hockey star Craig Simpson, Culinary Champion Marc Lepine of Ottawa, Olympic Multi-Medallist Adam Van Koeverden, Legendary Entertainer Barney Bentall and Special Guest Appearances by Two-Time Olympian and 2007 World Champion Freestyle Skier Kristi Richards!

Travel Dates: February 5 – 10, 2013

“The Last Supper” as Chef-Champion Marc Lepine prepares his last dinner as reigning Canadian Culinary Champion in the spectacular White Spirit Lodge. This will definitely be one of the highlights of the week!

Following your three days of skiing, you and your guests will be transferred back to Kelowna, where you will spend two nights at the spectacular Delta Grand Okanagan Hotel and receive VIP passes to the 2013 Canadian Culinary Championships. You will attend the Mystery Wine Pairing, Black Box, and Grand Finale competitions, and watch the ten gold-medal-winning chefs from across Canada compete in these three thrilling and grueling challenges. At the Grand Finale you will witness the crowning of Canada’s best chef for 2013!

All ground transportation from Kelowna Airport to Big White Resort and from Big White Resort to the Delta Grand Okanagan Hotel is provided.
Your six-day, five-night Big White Culinary Adventure for four includes:

- Three nights’ accommodation in a deluxe two-bedroom condominium with ski in/out access at either Stonebridge Lodge or Sundance Resort on February 5, 6 and 7, 2013
- Four three-day ski passes to Big White, Western Canada’s premiere ski destination
- Welcome champagne reception hosted by Canadian Culinary Champion Marc Lepine, Jamie Sale, Craig Simpson and Barney Bentall
- Ground transportation from Kelowna Airport to Big White Resort and from Big White Resort to the Delta Grand Okanagan Hotel
- A four-course culinary experience at the spectacular White Spirit Lodge, created by 2012 Canadian Culinary Champion Marc Lepine of Atelier in Ottawa
- Two nights’ accommodation at the Delta Grand Okanagan Hotel in Kelowna on February 8 and 9, 2013 (two, one-bedroom hotel rooms)
- Four VIP passes to the three Canadian Culinary Competition events, as follows:

  Mystery Wine Pairing Competition on Friday, February 8 at the Hotel Eldorado.

  Chefs will be presented with a mystery bottle of wine on Thursday night and are then required to prepare a dish with local ingredients that best complements the mystery wine, in a set amount of time and with a set budget. During the event you will taste the mystery wine and play ‘judge’ as you vote on the “People’s Choice Award” for the best wine and food pairing. Food and wine included.

  Black Box Competition on Saturday, February 9 at Okanagan College

  Chefs receive only 10 minutes notice and a black box containing an array of diverse foods before having to produce and plate two spectacular dishes for the national judges. All in one very short hour! You won’t get much closer to watching an Iron Chef competition than this - you will be a spectator in the kitchen!

  The Grand Finale Competition on Saturday, February 9 at Delta Grand Okanagan Hotel

  Your VIP tickets include access to the VIP reception where Marc Lepine, 2012 Canadian Culinary Champion and Executive Chef at Atelier in Ottawa, will prepare spectacular hors d’oeuvres and wonderful regional wines will be served. On the final night of competition, anything goes. Chefs create their best dish for guests to sample, paired with a great wine from their regional winery partner. By evening’s end, Canada’s Champion Chef for 2013 will be crowned and a victory celebration will be staged including a show produced by National Entertainment Advisor, Jim Cuddy. Food and wine included.

The Glory, Magic and Mystery that is South Africa – Eight Wonderful Days of Wine, Song and Sunshine Amidst Luxury and Adventure

Declared ‘The Best Destination on the Planet’ by Trip Advisor in 2012!

With Special Guests Juno Award Winners Jim Cuddy and Sam Roberts and Olympic Gold and Silver Medallist Simon Whitfield and Very Special Guest Ed Robertson*

Come and experience South Africa – a land of spellbinding landscapes – from Table Mountain to God’s window – mountains, forests, breathtaking coastline, vineyards and deserts - majestic wildlife, fascinating cultures and local traditions presented by some of the most hospitable and warm people you will ever meet – we promise you will be mesmerized by the rhythm and soul of Africa!

You will enjoy a glorious week at the luxurious 5 star Asara Wine Estate located in Stellenbosch, 25 minutes from the Capetown airport. Asara, set in the tall grass of Cape plains, is known as the meeting point of African gods and here General Manager Pete Gottgens who served as Nelson Mandela’s Personal Chef for seven years is sure to make your stay unforgettable. Stellenbosch is a vibrant, safe university town offering old world charm, trendy bars, gourmet restaurants and a vibrant night-life. Capetown, with world class sites and shopping, is also only 40 minutes from Asara and was recently declared the best travel destination in the World by Trip Advisor.

Your adventure will include a spectacular champagne dinner at the top of one of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World – Table Mountain - where you can either hike or take a cable car to this amazing setting. Also, you will experience a Private Game Reserve Day Safari where you will experience the Big 5 – lions, rhinos, elephants, Cape buffalos and leopards along with many other wildlife.

If golf is your passion, there are five superb golf courses within 30 minutes of Asara. And if cycling is your passion, you will want to pack your bike and join Olympic Gold Medallist Simon Whitfield on daily guided rides through the mountains and along the spectacular coastline. And for those of you who are up to a challenge – Gold Medal Plates has reserved a space for you in the March 10 Cape Argus Ride, the world’s largest timed bike ride at 110 km around Table Mountain and along the breathtaking coastline of the Cape of Good Hope! And if golfing or cycling are not for you, we offer NIA - a workout that draws from the martial arts, dance arts and healing arts - great for cautious beginners or highly fit athletes!

Add concerts under the African sun by Juno award winners Jim Cuddy, Sam Roberts and Ed Robertson and special guest Anne Lindsay, and it is an experience that you just can’t miss!

* Ed will join each week for four days and bring his tremendous musical talent and wit in a very special ‘Ed’s Night’ performance.
Your seven-night, eight-day adventure for two includes:

- Accommodations, including gourmet breakfast, at the five-star Asara Wine Estate located amidst the rolling Stellenbosch hills, the foot of the tranquil dam. Set apart from other estates by its rich African heritage and world-class hospitality, Asara has 3 full dining restaurants, cigar bar, pool, 24-hour concierge and a carefully-researched wine list.
- Welcome reception, featuring exquisite wines from Asara’s cellar
- Concert under the African sun with Canadian musicians Jim Cuddy, Sam Roberts and Ed Robertson and special guest Anne Lindsay
- South Africa wine tasting hosted by Jim Cuddy
- Poolside parties and music
- Cycling with Olympian Simon Whitfield, led by local guides along the mountains and coastlines of the area (optional). Opportunity to participate in the world’s largest timed bike ride, Cape Argus – 110 km. (Entry fee not included).
  (Note: You will need to bring your own bike – road bike rentals not available in South Africa)
- Nia sessions - playful and pleasurable workout with dynamic movement patterns set to great music - taught by Martha Randall - Nia Black Belt Teacher
- A spectacular champagne dinner at the top of Table Mountain where you can either hike or take a cable car to this amazing setting
- Private Game Reserve Day Safari – includes transportation and lunch
- Time to explore the beauty of Capetown Stellenbosch and the world-class wine district of South Africa with over 150 wine estates surrounding the Asara property. Some of Africa’s best dining is within 30 minutes of the resort.

Optional add-ons (at additional cost):

- Participate in the Asara Wine Harvest and pick grapes and enjoy breakfast with the Asara winemaker
- Golfing
- Mountain bike riding through the vineyards

South Africa is a fantastic blend of Europe and Africa - great food, amazing wines and jaw dropping scenery. I was impressed with how safe it was and loved the people and culture, not to mention Table Mountain, Cape of Good Hope and the wildlife – scenes out of National Geographic. Another dream trip ticked off my bucket list, but I will be back!— JIM HEPELL, VANCOUVER

Discover One of the Hottest Destinations on the Planet—Chile! (Second Year!)

Travel Dates: March 16 - 23, 2013

Squeezed between the Pacific Ocean and the Andes Mountains along the extreme southwestern coast of South America, Chile is magically diverse and incredibly beautiful. In the centre of this vast, long and narrow country lies the agricultural heartland and the conditions that makes this a winemaker’s paradise!

Your adventure will begin with four nights in the capital city of Santiago – a wonderfully modern and urban city surrounded by the magnificent peaks of the Andes. While in Santiago, you will have time to explore one of South America’s most interesting cities, including Plaza de Armas, the city’s main pedestrian square in the heart of the city near the city’s most relevant historic buildings including Metropolitan Cathedral, Mercado Central (Central Market) and La Vega Central, Santa Lucia hill, great restaurants and specialty shopping. We will also venture outside Santiago to hike in the world’s longest continental mountain range – the Andes (optional), visit the picturesque port of Valparaiso and its 46 hills, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, taste the wines of the Maipo Valley, long famous for its elegant cabernet sauvignons and the Casablanca Valley region that excels at crisp and fruity sauvignon blanc, chardonnay and pinot noir.

For your last three nights, you will be transported back in time to the city of Santa Cruz located in the heart of Chile’s wine country - Colchagua Valley – a valley recognized for the production of its premium wines and the most highly awarded Chilean valley at international competitions in recent years. This is the place where syrah, carmenere and malbec are head-turners! We will taste some of the finest wines in this region, including Vina Casa Silva where we will watch their champion Polo team play while enjoying lunch and their award-winning wines at the Club House. We will hike along the many historic trails in the valley and on the last night enjoy an unforgettable private concert by Barney Bentall and Sarah Harmer in the private wine estate of Hacienda Araucano under the stars, overlooking the vineyards of Santa Cruz!

Unforgettable landscapes, peaceful countrysides, great food, wonderful people with a culture steeped in tradition and an exciting wine culture that is drawing attention from around the world, makes Chile a destination that should be on everyone’s bucket list!
Your seven-night, eight-day adventure for two includes:

- Four nights’ accommodation in the newly opened, five-star Noi Hotel, located at the heart of Alonso de Cordova, one of the hippest areas in all of Chile! The property boasts bright and spacious rooms, full service spa, rooftop pool, two gourmet restaurants, two bars, including a roof top bar with an impressive 360 degree view of the Andes and the green plains of the city, and an impressive wine cellar. (breakfast included)

- Welcome reception on the rooftop terrace of Noi Hotel featuring exquisite wines from Chile with special guests Olympians “Crazy Canuck” Steve Podborski and Adam Van Koeverden, and music icons Sarah Harmer and Barney Bentall

- Three nights’ accommodation at the turn of the century Santa Cruz Hotel in the heart of Chile’s most awarded wine country (breakfast included)

- Private concert under the stars, overlooking the vineyards of Santa Cruz by Barney Bentall and Sarah Harmer

- Private wine tastings in some of the finest wineries of the Maipo, Casablanca and Colchagua Valleys of Chile

- A day hiking in the spectacular Andes (optional)

- An afternoon and evening to explore Valparaiso, a UNESCO World Heritage Site

- Watching a polo match while enjoying lunch and tasting at Vina Casa Silva

Hockey Night in the Adriatic (Third Year!)

With Ron MacLean of Hockey Night in Canada, Alan Doyle, Lead Singer of Great Big Sea, Chef Todd Perrin of Top Chef Canada fame and Hockey Legends Russ Courtnall and Paul Coffey!

Travel Dates: June 22 – 29, 2013

Experience seven amazing days on the idyllic waters of the Adriatic coastline aboard traditional luxury schooners, visiting beautiful and rustic islands, sampling local and international wines and foods, being entertained by hockey stories and robust, heartfelt tunes by Alan and Todd – (he’s from Newfoundland, of course he sings too!) We will ensure your glass is never empty and a song and smile just a breath away.

Be there to say “I WAS THERE” for the third annual International MacLean Cup Road Hockey game, where you will play with Russ, Paul and the rest of your shipmates to make up Team MacLean to play against Team Croatia, refereed by none other than Ron MacLean. We play for bragging rights, beer and the opportunity to hoist the mighty cup around the magical island of Hvar, host-island to the game. It may not be a serious game, but it is seriously fun! All guests are invited to play or you can choose to cheer on your favorite team!

Your adventure will begin in Split, Croatia, a city built on the shores of the Adriatic with its core housed inside the 2,000-year-old Diocletian’s Palace, bursting with bars, cafes and boutiques that are all wrapped up in a Mediterranean buzz – spectacular! Your adventure will end in the legendary city of Dubrovnik, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In between, you will visit remote islands, experience a traditional Peka dinner in the hill-top village of Pitve, be serenaded by Alan Doyle on the schooner, on top of turrets, or wherever else he decides to pull out his guitar and be entertained by hockey tales from your hockey legends Russ Courtnall, Paul Coffey and of course, Ron MacLean! Relish as the schooner chefs, led by Chef Todd Perrin, participate in a week-long “Adriatic Cook-off” to declare the best schooner chef.

Relax, enjoy the sunshine, take a dip in the crystal clear Adriatic waters, celebrate life and this gorgeous part of the world steeped in history. This is one big floating kitchen party across the Adriatic Sea!

Terms and Conditions: Flight not included. Meals only as specified above will be included. Transportation as noted above will be included. These prizes are non-negotiable and not convertible to cash. The prize must be redeemed on the dates specified – no exceptions. The recipient agrees to accept the prizes as is, fully aware of any and all restrictions. The redemption processes of these live auctions are the sole responsibility of the winners. The recipient will be required to sign a waiver of liability regarding GMP Services Inc., Gold Metal Plates, Canadian Olympic Foundation and Canadian Olympic Committee and their respective employees and volunteers’ involvement in offering, sponsoring, hosting or arranging the events or activities described as part of the above package. The recipients agree to these terms and conditions. Please note: cabins are suitable for two adults and rooms with two single beds are limited and will be allocated on a first come, first serve basis. Trips are suitable for those eighteen years of age and over.
Your eight-day, seven-night adventure for two includes:

• After arriving in the spectacular city of Split, you will spend eight days and seven nights aboard a six- or seven-cabin luxury schooner, known locally as “gulets.” These vessels are professionally crewed with Captain, cook and staff. Cabins are quaint with their own private bathroom. Breakfast and lunch is provided.

• Welcome reception where you will sample the wonderful foods, wines and beers of the region, in the seaside village of Omis, hosted by Ron MacLean of Hockey Night in Canada, Alan Doyle of Great Big Sea and “Robin Hood” fame, Chef Todd Perrin and hockey legends Russ Courtnall and Paul Coffey!

• Superb and authentic dinner with Ron and Cari MacLean at Dvor Dubokovic in the hill-top village of Pitve for a traditional Peka dinner while being serenaded by traditional folk musicians (meal and wine included).

• Daily anchor stops in quiet secluded bays to take a dip in the beautiful waters of the Adriatic. There are sure to be unique cocktails and tunes by DJ Ron MacLean (his first job before broadcasting).

• Tasting the exception grappa, food and wines of this beautiful region of the world.

• The Third annual International MacLean Cup Road Hockey game in Hvar, followed by a postgame celebration in this world-class port. Be ready for some serious fun!

• Enjoy lunch created by your crew led by Chef Todd Perrin of “The Chef’s Inn” and his new restaurant opening in St. John’s this spring - “Mallard Cottage”. Chef Todd uses some of his tricks from Top Chef Canada as part of the Chefs ‘Adriatic Cook-off’ on the gulets.

• A memorable visit to the beautiful island of Korcula, known as “Little Dubrovnik.”

• Private concert by the sea by Alan Doyle of Great Big Sea!

Optional add-ons (at additional cost):

• Opportunity to explore Split, Croatia, a city built on the shores of the Adriatic with its core housed inside the 2,000-year-old Diocletian’s Palace, bursting with bars, cafes and boutiques that are all wrapped up in a Mediterranean buzz – spectacular!

• Opportunity to extend your stay to visit other islands and the legendary city of Dubrovnik, a UNESCO World Heritage Site!
